Articles of Association

Chapter 6

Meeting of Shareholders

Section 31. The Board of Directors shall hold an annual general meeting of shareholders within four (4) months from the end date of the accounting period of the Company.

Meetings of shareholders other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings. The Board of Directors may call an extraordinary general meeting any time the Board considers it expedient to do so.

One or more shareholder(s) holding not less than ten (10) percent of the total issued shares may request in writing to the Board of Directors to hold an extra-ordinary meeting of shareholders at any time but they shall clearly specify reasons for such request in the notice. In such case, the Board of Directors must hold a meeting of shareholders within forty-five (45) days from the date of receipt of the notice.

In the case that the Board of Directors does not hold such meeting within the period specified in the third paragraph, the shareholders who have submitted the requestor other shareholders holding the aggregate number of shares as prescribed in this Article may hold the meeting by themselves within forty-five (45) days from the lapse of the period referred in the third paragraph. In this case, it shall be deemed that such shareholder's meeting is the meeting called by the Board of Directors. The Company shall be responsible for all necessary expenses incurring from the holding of the meeting and reasonable facilitation.

In the case that shareholders summon a meeting as per the fourth paragraph, shareholders summoning the meeting may send notice summoning the meeting to shareholders via electronic methods, provided that such shareholders have declared their intention or given consent to the Company or the Board of Directors, in accordance with the specified by law.

In the case that the quorum of the meeting convened as requested by the shareholders according to the fourth paragraph cannot be formed as required by this Articles of Association, the shareholders under the fourth paragraph shall be jointly responsible for any expenses incurring from the convening of such meeting.

Section 32. In calling a meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors shall issue a notice of meeting, specifying the location, date, time, agenda, and matters to be proposed to the meeting together with reasonable details, stating clearly whether such matters will be for acknowledgement, for approval, or for consideration, as the case may be including the opinions of the Board of Directors on the said matters and shall send the same to the shareholders and the registrar for their information not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. Publication of notice of the meeting shall also be made in a newspaper at least three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting.

Section 33. In order to constitute a quorum, there shall be shareholders and proxies (if any) attending at the meeting in a number of not less than twenty-five (25) or not less than one-half of the total number of shareholders holding shares in aggregate amount of not less than one-third (1/3) of the total number of shares sold.

Shareholders may appoint a proxy who has reached legal age to represent him/her at the meeting and vote on his/her behalf. A instrument appointing a proxy must be dated and signed by the shareholder who appoints the proxy and it must be in accordance with the format prescribed by the registrar. If a proxy wishes to vote at the meeting, such instrument shall be submitted by the proxy to the Chairman or his/her designated person at the meeting venue before the proxy attends the meeting.

The proxy appointment under the second paragraph may be proceeded via electronic methods under any method that can be trusted of security and that the proxy is performed by the shareholders in accordance with the specified by law.

At a meeting of shareholders, if after one hour from the time scheduled for the meeting, the number of shareholders present is insufficient to form a quorum, if such meeting was convened at the request of shareholders, it shall be cancelled. If such meeting was not convened at the request of shareholders, it shall be called again and the notice of meeting shall be sent to the shareholders not less than seven (7) days before the date of the meeting. In the latter meeting, a quorum is not required.

Section 34. The Chairman of the Board of Director shall preside over the meeting of shareholders. In the case where the Chairman is not present or unable to perform his duty, the Vice-Chairman shall preside over the meeting. If there is no Vice-Chairman, or the Vice-Chairman is unable to perform his duty, the shareholders present at the meeting may elect one of their number to chair the meeting.

Section 35. In casting votes, one share shall be entitled to one vote. Any shareholder who has a vested interest in any matter shall not be entitled to vote on such matter, except for voting on the election of directors. The resolution of the meeting of shareholders shall consist of the following votes:

- (1) In normal cases, the majority of votes of shareholders who attend the meeting and cast votes. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.
- (2) In the following cases, a resolution shall be passed by votes of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the total number of votes of shareholders who attend the meeting and are entitled to vote:

- (a) The sale or transfer of the whole or a substantial part of the business of the Company to other persons;
- (b) The purchase or acceptance of transfer of the business of private companies or other public companies by the company;
- (c) The entry into, amendment or termination of contracts with respect to the leasing out of the whole or a substantial part of the business of the Company, the assignment to any other persons to manage the business of the Company or the amalgamation of the business with other persons with the objective towards profit and loss sharing;
